About My Sisters Place

My Sister's Place is an independent Domestic Abuse Service.

As a feminist organisation, we offer confidential women only spaces and also support male survivors of domestic abuse for clients to express their concerns.

- We have over 20 years of experience working as members of our community in helping those affected by domestic abuse.
- We understand the steps to take to keep those who need us safe and protected.
- Our clients always come first, and meeting their individual needs is our first priority.
- We have a specialist, multi-disciplinary team with a wide range of resources who understand what help and support to give at each stage of the recovery process.
- We work tirelessly to ensure that the voices of survivors are heard, challenging where necessary to get the support they need.
- We help our clients plan for a different future and help them take steps to realising this goal by helping them take back control, building empowerment and hope.
- We are wholeheartedly committed to changing lives affected by domestic violence for the better, whether this be survivors or perpetrators. We have services specifically dedicated to achieving these goals.
- Our track record shows that what we do works in addressing the impact of domestic abuse in families and communities.
- We work to build community engagement in what we do, working with other agencies and those in power so we can collectively address the impact domestic abuse has on survivors and on our community.
- We are a by and for women organisation, our Trustees are all women, and we remain committed to this principle.
- We are committed to working with diverse communities alongside protecting women only space in our main service

Our Purpose

- To deliver accessible, responsive, adaptable and effective services that are informed and evaluated by service user's experiences promoting individual freedom and quality of life.
- To explore new and innovative ways to address domestic violence issues with a range of partners and share best practice locally.
- To challenge inequality in access to safety, justice, health and well-being and campaign for change to shape future policy and practice.
- To work with the wider community through education and community involvement to create a cultural shift in a zero tolerance of domestic abuse and better equip families to protect one another.
